

WITHOUT DOUBT

FOR NANCY O'REILLY

MUSIC BY MADELINE MYERS
LYRICS BY JACQUELINE SUSKIN &

Without doubt
Without hesitation
Without pause or qualm
The clarity and calm of purpose
Comes like a divine definition
Wait, define definition:
A sign, an admission
A promise from providence

Without doubt
Without fail
Feminine form to craft a creation
To draft a foundation
God laughed in elation
She laughed!
Oh, she laughed!

Feminine form forms the finest feeling
A connection, a communal consideration
Considering each voice
You too?
You too?
You too? And you, and you, and me?

In unison, in unison, in unison
Without this, without myths
To block us from betterment
We're much better than that
We're not better off without each other

In unison, in unison, in unison
We find the balance
The bright bloom of equality
That brings us into steadfast union
