

AGET

FOR AGET

MUSIC & LYRICS BY SOPHIA LANUZA

VERSE

Has anyone told you
Has anyone showed you what they see?
The way that you carry
The world in your hands;
You stand and achieve
Sometimes it takes some time for us to find our shore
But don't you settle up, you're made for more

Maybe it's harder
To go even farther all alone
How could they ask you?
How could they ask if you're their own?
Sometimes it takes some time for us to know
But rain just makes the swamp grow

CHORUS

Even in the face of silence
Holding out your hands for guidance
Don't you know it's what's inside us
Oh Aget, you'll get where you should go
Heavy like the tears on Sunday
You're thinking that the helps' not coming
But you were made for more than running
Oh Aget, you'll get where you should go

VERSE

They came from impatience
Their words held a weight when they pushed back
They tell you you're nothing
You know what you're something greater than that
Back against the wall you reach for plans
And brick by brick you build yourself to stand

CHORUS

Even in the face of silence
Holding out your hands for guidance
Don't you know it's what's inside us

Oh Aget, you'll get where you should go
Heavy like the tears on Sunday
You're thinking that the help's not coming
But you were made for more than running
Oh Aget, you'l get where you should go
